Offender Escapes from Plummer Community Corrections Center

An offender serving a Violation of Probation sentence at the Plummer Community Corrections Center (PCCC) in Wilmington left the facility grounds without authorization Tuesday night.

According to facility counselors, who reported the escape to PCCC staff, Raymond R. Brown jumped a wall and left the facility around 8 p.m. Correctional Officers launched an immediate response to the area, but Brown had already left the grounds.

Brown is a 20-year-old black male who is 5'04" and weighs 170 pounds. He was last seen wearing a white tank top, light blue ¾-length pants, and a white kufi cap.

Serving a one-year, five-month sentence for Violation of Probation on an original charge of Possession with Intent to Distribute, Brown arrived at Plummer Center on May 12, 2010. His last known address is in Wilmington.

Officers continue their search for Brown and request that anyone with information call (800) 542-9524 or their local police department.
