Offender Escapes from Plummer Community Corrections Center

An offender serving a sentence at the Plummer Community Corrections Center (PCCC) in Wilmington left the facility grounds without authorization Sunday night.

Pleasant Hardy was seen jumping over the facility's perimeter wall around 6:45 p.m. Correctional Officers responded to the area and made visual contact with Hardy, but he managed to flee.

Hardy is a 29-year-old black male who is 5'10" and weighs 160 pounds. He has brown eyes, black hair, and tattoos on his back and chest. He was last seen wearing a black knit hat, black coat, dark jeans, and a white T-shirt.

Serving a one-year sentence for Violation of Probation on an original charge of Possession within 1000 feet of a School, Hardy arrived at PCCC on March 2, 2011. His last known address is in Wilmington.

Officers continue their search for Hardy and request that anyone with information call (800) 542-9524 or their local police department.

Plummer Community Corrections Center is a Level 4 facility where the Department of Correction manages offenders who are transitioning back into the community. These centers are not secured like Level 5 prisons, as offenders are permitted to leave the facility to go to work, seek jobs or attend approved treatment sessions.
