Morris Center offender leaves facility, found dead by apparent suicide

An offender serving a sentence at the Morris Community Corrections Center (MCCC) in Dover left the facility on an approved pass and was later found dead by an apparent suicide by hanging.

Thomas W. Myers, 43, left MCCC on an approved pass Wednesday, October 3. He was scheduled to return to the facility no later than 3 p.m. that day. When Myers failed to return he was deemed a walk-away and appropriate warrants were obtained. A search was initiated to locate him and he was found by Department of Correction officers the morning of Thursday, October 4.

Myers arrived at Morris on January 4, 2012 to serve the one-year Level 4 portion of his sentence on the charge of Rape 3rd.
