Two Offenders Leave Plummer Community Corrections Center

Two offenders serving sentences at the Plummer Community Corrections Center (PCCC) in Wilmington left the facility grounds without authorization Monday, August 12, 2013. Anthony Faulkner and Calyton Washington were confirmed missing following an evening headcount that took place around 8:30.

Faulkner is a 22-year-old black male who is 6'00" and weighs 230 pounds. He has brown eyes, black hair and a full beard. He also has scars on his face, left eyebrow, right eyebrow and right arm. Faulkner was serving a six-month sentence for a Violation of Probation on an original charge of Attempted Robbery. He arrived at PCCC on July 31, 2013. His last known address is in Newark, DE.

Washington is an 18-year-old black male who is 5'09" and weighs 180 pounds. He has brown eyes and black hair, with tattoos on his chest and right wrist. He was serving a six-month sentence for a Violation of Probation on an original charge of Handgun Prohibited. He arrived at PCCC on April 24, 2013. His last known address is in Newark, DE.

Officers continue their search and request that anyone with information call (800) 542-9524 or their local police department.

Plummer Community Corrections Center is a Level 4 facility where the Department of Correction manages offenders who are transitioning back into the community. These centers are not secured like Level 5 prisons, as offenders are permitted to leave the facility to go to work, seek jobs or attend approved treatment sessions.
