Efforts Continue to Locate Offender who Escaped from Work Crew Mark Humberston considered possibly armed and dangerous following burglary

Department of Correction staff and Delaware State Police continue their search for Mark Humberston, an offender who escaped from a Central Violation of Probation Center (CVOP) work crew Monday afternoon near Collins Beach. Humberston is believed to have burglarized a home in the 100 block of Walker School Road in Smyrna and may have taken a firearm during the incident. Law enforcement officers are now considering Humberston to be armed and potentially dangerous.

Humberston is an 18-year-old white male who is 6'01" and weighs 230 pounds. He has brown hair and brown eyes. His last known address was in Clayton.

Humberston, who was at CVOP serving a sentence for a Violation of Probation on an original charge of Possession of a Firearm by Person Prohibited, failed to return from a work break around noon. Notification was immediately sent to Department of Correction apprehension teams, as well as local and state law enforcement agencies.

Anyone with information is asked to call 9-1-1.
