Media Notification

The Delaware Department of Correction announces that late Sunday evening, October 8, 2017, two offenders from the Howard R. Young Correctional Institution in Wilmington attempted to escape custody. Both offenders were able to access the roof of the facility after breaching the recreation yard security canopy. Once on the roof, one offender turned back while the other was discovered by outside patrol. Both offenders are being treated for injuries sustained during the escape attempt. An investigation is ongoing into this matter and the offenders will be charged with attempted escape.
