

NEWS RELEASE

DELAWARE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION

Commissioner Monroe B. Hudson, Jr.

Presented by Jason P. Miller, Chief of Communications and Community Relations

245 McKee Road | Dover, DE 19904 | Office: 302.857.5232 | jason.miller@delaware.gov

Death investigation at Howard R. Young Correctional Institution

Wilmington, Del -- On Thursday, October 7, 2021 at approximately 10:55 p.m. Quinn P. Annable, 20 years old from Newark, Delaware was observed by Correctional Officers in his cell following an suicide attempt. Correctional Officers immediately conducted life-saving measures, including CPR. New Castle County Emergency Medical Services arrived, continued life-saving measures, and transported Annable to Christiana Hospital where he later succumbed to the injuries he sustained during the suicide attempt.

On Friday, October 15, 2021 the Delaware State Police announced the conclusion of its investigation. Read the full release at <https://dsp.delaware.gov/2021/10/15/update-state-police-conducting-death-investigation-wilmington/>).

If you are a crime victim in need of assistance, you are encouraged to call DOC Victim Services at 302-857-5440.

-END-