DOC announces non-COVID inmate death

Smyrna, DE -- The Delaware Department of Correction (DOC) today announced that Anthony Warner, a 62-year-old inmate from James T. Vaughn Correctional Center (JTVCC) with chronic health conditions, died on Saturday, October 15.

Warner had been housed in the prison infirmary. On October 15 at approximately 4:30 p.m. a medical alert was issued when he was found unresponsive. CPR was immediately initiated by facility medical staff and Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Paramedics were dispatched. Additional lifesaving measures were undertaken by EMS Paramedics upon their arrival. Warner was pronounced dead by emergency medical services (EMS) providers at the JTVCC infirmary at 5:20 p.m. on Saturday, October 15.

Warner, of New Castle, DE, has been in DOC custody since 2017 and was serving a life sentence for a Violation of Parole. His body was released to the Delaware Division of Forensic Science to determine cause of death.

If you are a crime victim in need of assistance, you are encouraged to call DOC Victim Services at 302-857-5440.
