Dover, DE –The Delaware Department of Correction invites members of the public to join the next “DOC Insider Series” webinar on Thursday, September 28 at 10:00 a.m. with a focus on working behind the walls of Delaware’s correctional facilities. The DOC Insider Series provides members of the public with a look inside Delaware’s correctional programs, practices, and policies through live informational presentations and interactive question and answer sessions with Department of Correction leaders.

The September 28 webinar will feature how the Delaware DOC recruits, hires, and trains employees assigned to state prisons and will review a day in the life of correctional employees who work behind the walls. The DOC Insider Series Webinar: “Working Behind the Walls” is facilitated by the Department of Correction Office of Planning, Research and Reentry and is presented by DOC

Training Academy Director Jodie Hunter, DOC Director of Recruitment Michael Nichols, and Bureau Chief of Prisons Shane Troxler.

“Prisons are complex self-contained communities that rely on staff with a wide variety of skills, knowledge, and job functions to meet our dual mission of public safety and rehabilitation,” Department of Correction Acting Commissioner Terra Taylor said. “Join us on September 28 to learn how we recruit diverse, capable, and well qualified men and women to work as corrections professionals and how we support them through world-class training to work effectively in a unique and challenging environment behind the walls.”
